The Word of God

OPENING HYMN — HYMNAL 489
The great Creator of the worlds

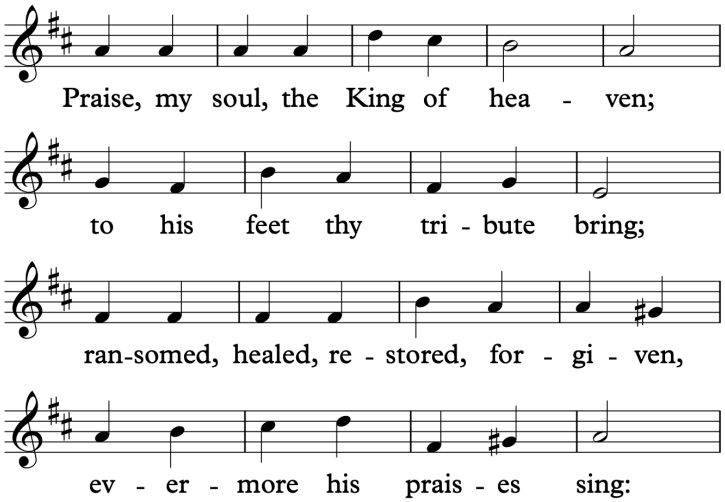
Please stand as you are able.
THE ACCLAMATION AND COLLECT FOR PURITY

Celebrant: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People: And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

People: Amen.

HYMN OF PRAISE



Text: Henry Francis Lyte (1793-1847); Tune: Lauda anima, John Goss (1800-1880)

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Celebrant: Let us pray.

THE COLLECT FOR THE DAY

Almighty God, you have built your Church upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief cornerstone: Grant us so to be joined together in unity of spirit by their teaching, that we may be made a holy temple acceptable to you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Please be seated for the Readings
THE FIRST LESSON
A Reading from the Book of Jeremiah — 28:5-9

The prophet Jeremiah spoke to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of the LORD; and the prophet Jeremiah said, "Amen! May the LORD do so; may the LORD fulfill the words that you have prophesied, and bring back to this place from Babylon the vessels of the house of the LORD, and all the exiles. But listen now to this word that I speak in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people. The prophets who preceded you and me from ancient times prophesied war, famine, and pestilence against many countries and great kingdoms. As for the prophet who prophesies peace, when the word of that prophet comes true, then it will be known that the LORD has truly sent the prophet."

The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

PSALM 89:1-4, 15-18 sung by the choir chant tune: Thomas Tallis

1 Your love, O LORD, for ever will I sing; *
from age to age my mouth will proclaim your faithfulness.

2 For I am persuaded that your love is established for ever; *
you have set your faithfulness firmly in the heavens.

3 "I have made a covenant with my chosen one; *
I have sworn an oath to David my servant:

4 'I will establish your line forever, *
and preserve your throne for all generations.'"

15 Happy are the people who know the festal shout! *
they walk, O LORD, in the light of your presence.

16 They rejoice daily in your Name; *
they are jubilant in your righteousness.

17 For you are the glory of their strength, * and by your favor our might is exalted.

18 Truly, the LORD is our ruler; *
the Holy One of Israel is our King.

SECOND LESSON
A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Romans 6:12-23

Do not let sin exercise dominion in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. No longer present your members to sin as instruments of wickedness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and present your members to God as instruments of righteousness. For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace.

What then? Should we sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God that you, having once been slaves of sin, have become obedient from the heart to the form of teaching to which you were entrusted, and that you, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to greater and greater iniquity, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness for sanctification.

When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. So what advantage did you then get from the things of which you now are ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been freed from sin and enslaved to God, the advantage you get is sanctification. The end is eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL HYMN HYMNAL 617
Eternal Ruler of the ceaseless round Stanzas 1 & 2 before, 3 after

Please stand as you are able.
THE HOLY GOSPEL MATTHEW 10:40-42

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

[Jesus said,] "Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. Whoever welcomes a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's reward; and whoever welcomes a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive the reward of the righteous; and whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple—truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward."

The Gospel of the Lord.
People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Please be seated.
THE SERMON

Please stand as you are able.
THE NICENE CREED BCP 358

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE [FORM II] BCP 385
Please add your own petitions and thanksgivings silently or aloud according to the intercessor's prayers.

THE CONFESSION OF SIN EOW 56
The Deacon: Let us confess our sins to God.

Minister and People:
God of all mercy, we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives. We have denied your goodness in each other, in ourselves, and in the world you have created. We repent of the evil that enslaves us, the evil we have done, and the evil done on our behalf. Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

ABSOLUTION
Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Please stand.
THE PEACE

Please be seated.

THE OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Sing joyfully — William Byrd (1540-1623)

Please stand when the offerings are brought forward to the altar.

PRESENTATION HYMN Sung to tune: Old One Hundredth

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him all creatures here below.
Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Celebrant: All things come of thee, O Lord.
People: And of thine own have we given thee.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

And so we join with saints and angels in proclaiming your glory as together we say

SANCTUS

Sung by the choir — Setting: Harold Darke in F

Father, you loved the world so much that in the fullness of time you sent your only Son to be our Savior. Incarnate by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, he lived as one of us, yet without sin.

To the poor he proclaimed the good news of salvation; to prisoners, freedom; to the sorrowful, joy. To fulfill your purpose he gave himself up to death; and, rising from the grave, destroyed death, and made the whole creation new.

And, that we might live no longer for ourselves, but for him who died and rose for us, he sent the Holy Spirit, his own first gift for those who believe, to complete his work in the world, and to bring to fulfillment the sanctification of all.

And so, Father, we bring you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you. This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Father, we now celebrate the memorial of your Son. By means of this holy bread and cup, we show forth the sacrifice of his death, and proclaim his resurrection, until he comes again. Gather us by this Holy Communion into one body in your Son Jesus Christ. ✢ Make us a living sacrifice of praise.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

THE LORD'S PRAYER

People and Celebrant:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

AGNUS DEI

Sung by the choir — Setting: Harold Darke in F

THE COMMUNION OF THE PEOPLE

We believe that Holy Communion is a preview of that Heavenly Banquet when all of God's children—from all times and all places—will live in unbroken communion with God and one another. This is the central rite of our tradition. All are welcome to come with us to Christ's table and experience the presence of Christ in the bread and wine made holy. You are welcome to receive just the bread or to cross your arms in front of you to receive a blessing from the clergy.

COMMUNION ANTHEMS

Salvator mundi — Thomas Tallis (1505-1585)
O sing unto the Lord — Thomas Tomkins (1572-1656)

Please stand or kneel as you are able.

SENDING FORTH EUCHARISTIC VISITORS

Deacon:
In the name of this congregation, I send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ's body and blood.
People:
We who are many are one body, because we all share one bread, one cup.

Please stand or kneel as you are able.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Celebrant and People:

God of abundance, you have fed us with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

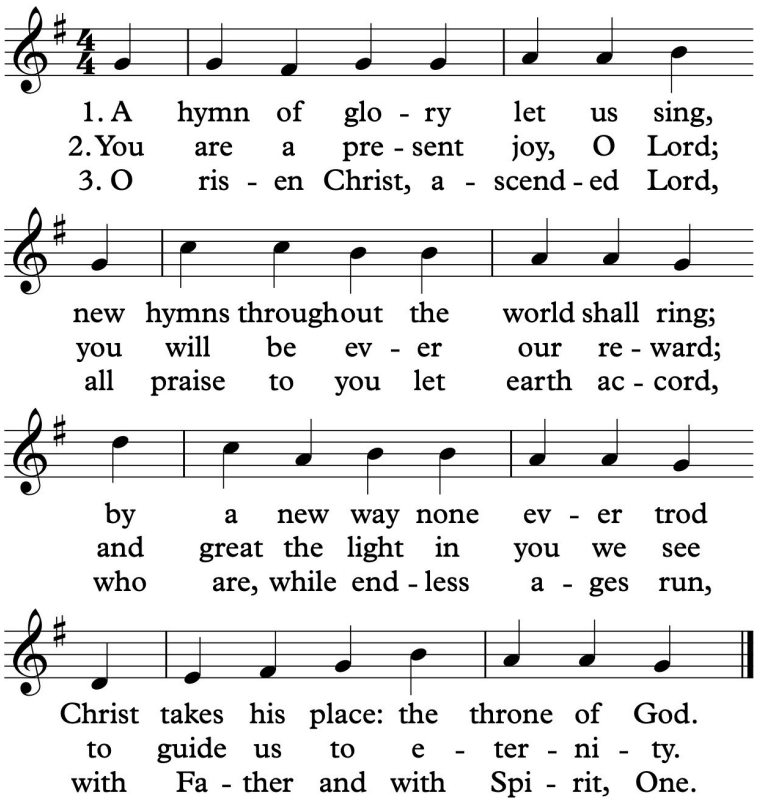
Please remain standing or kneeling.

THE BLESSING

Please stand.

THE CLOSING HYMN

A hymn of glory let us sing



Text: The Venerable Bede (673-735), tr. E. R. Charles & B. Webb
Music: Tallis's Canon, Thomas Tallis (1505-1585)

"Be still and know that I am God." - Psalm 46:10

There is, in all of us, an inherent desire to know God, to know ourselves, and to know why we are here. In our search for God, many of us have found the ancient Christian practice of centering prayer to be of great help. In the silence of the prayer, we intend to open ourselves to the Holy Spirit's transformative action in our minds and hearts.

SUNDAY MORNING PRAYER OFFERINGS (EXCEPT IN JULY, WORSHIP AT 9AM)

The Rosary Prayer
Sundays at 9AM in St. Mary's Chapel | Led by Ken Mosesian
Praying the Rosary lasts about 20 - 25 minutes, and helps to calm and center your mind through this ancient devotional focused on the Great Mysteries in the life of Jesus Christ. Rosary prayer beads and service booklets are provided.

Centering Prayer
Sundays at 9AM in the URBANO LIBRARY in the Church Office.
Led by Fr. Daniel Collier and Sara Soller
The Practice of Centering Prayer familiarizes us with God's first language – SILENCE. This method of silent prayer serves to prepare one to receive the gifts of God's presence. It is simple yet profound in its effects.

Coffee and Conversation
Sundays at 9AM in the St. Barbara Rooms
A chance to connect with and get to know the clergy and one another. Each week, the preacher for the following weekend will be part of the conversation to ask the members of the All Saints' community what they hear or wonder about in the appointed lessons—to get some communal input for next week's sermon.

A Reflection from Fr. Perry

Today (Wednesday the 24 th) is the day that the Church remembers the Nativity of St. John the Baptist. You can be forgiven if you did not know that fact. In the U.S., it's a day that garners modest attention outside of the congregations and communities named after the prophet called to prepare the way for Christ.

Last summer, we were fortunate enough to be in Barcelona on the Feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, and modest is not a word I would use to describe the celebrations we encountered there. The celebrations started shortly after sundown on June 23 with music on the street corners and crowds of people out and about everywhere celebrating. Thousands of people headed to the beach for bonfires, late-night swimming, and even more music. Around midnight, fireworks starting lighting up the sky from every corner of the city. It was well after 3am before the fireworks stopped popping and the music grew softer.

We were in Barcelona because Michelle was attending an international real estate conference, and even though June 24 is officially a national holiday in Spain for the Feast, no one had bothered to tell the conference planners. I woke up early(ish) with Michelle on the 24th and walked her down to the conference center, mostly because there were no cabs on the quiet streets. We walked for entire blocks without seeing another soul. The normally busy streets were silent, and the entire scene was surreal.

After I dropped Michelle off, I decided to walk back to the hotel a different way, just to enjoy the unexpected quiet of the city. I found a café that was open and stopped to have a cappuccino and a croissant. I have the Day by Day app on my phone and used it to sit there and say my prayers while I enjoyed my breakfast. It was a lovely, peaceful morning in one of the most beautiful cities I've ever visited.

Reflecting on this experience a year later, there are many things I am grateful for. I am grateful for Michelle and for the chance to have such a wonderful person by my side for all these journeys. I am grateful for the opportunities I've had to experience other places and cultures and to learn from the people I meet along the way. I am grateful for unexpected moments of quiet and for the chance to be still and encounter God. And I'm grateful for Elias and Aly, two amazing people who have enriched my life in unexpected ways. When I (finally) got them out of bed around noon, many of the shops and restaurants were starting to reopen. We were able to spend a fun afternoon exploring the city as just the three of us.

Every weekend when we gather, we join with Christians around the world in the celebration of the eucharist, a word that is derived from the Greek word for gratitude or thanksgiving. As followers of Christ, the practice of gratitude should be central to our individual and collective identity. It is literally the cornerstone of our worship and liturgy.

And I don't know about you, but sometimes when the air conditioner goes out and water pipes keep breaking, I can forget to be grateful. And while that might seem like a modern problem, scripture suggests otherwise. In the oldest book in the New Testament, Paul concluded his first letter to the Thessalonians by reminding them to "Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you."

So I hope that you will join with me this weekend and throughout Joyful July at All Saints' as we together give our thanks for the loving presence of God that brings comfort, peace, and joy, even (or especially) in the most surprising of circumstances.

Peery+

<<<<<

A quiet moment for which I continue to be grateful. And of course I am always grateful for coffee.
