

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMMUNION SERVERS

First Presbyterian Church, Salina, KS

- 1. You may be seated anywhere in the sanctuary during the main part of the service. When the pastor finishes the Lord's Prayer, go to the front of the sanctuary using the side aisles.
- 2. The worship assistant and the pastor will serve the bread standing closest to the center aisle. One server responsible for serving cups stands on the exterior wall side of the pulpit, and the other server responsible for serving cups stands on the exterior wall side of the lectern. Remove lids from the cup trays and place on the raised floor by the lectern and pulpit.
- 3. Those who serve the bread say, either, "The body of Christ broken for you." or "The bread of life given for you." Those who serve the cups say, either, "The blood of Christ shed for you." or "The cup of salvation given for you."
- 4. When all servers have finished serving the entire congregation, the pastor, worship assistant and two servers return their trays to where they were taken from. Replace the lids on the cup trays. The two servers will then proceed up the steps and Pastor Phil will serve communion via intinction. One server will then serve him. Once everyone has communed, the servers return to their seats.
