30 Ways to ask your kids what they learned at church...

(without asking them what they learned at church)

- What Bible story or verse did you talk about today?
- If someone asked you to retell the Bible story from memory, how would you tell it? Will you show me?
- What was your favorite part of the Bible story?
- Would you want to be like the main person in today's Bible story? Why or why not?
- What was the coolest or most interesting thing you learned today?
- What do you feel like God was telling you during church today?
- How did you feel after hearing today's Bible story?
- Did you laugh at church today? What was so funny?
- What was the best thing that happened at church today?
- Did you have a prayer time at church? What did you pray for?
- Who is your best friend at church?
- What is your favorite thing to do at church?
- Did you learn any new words or ideas at church today?
- What was the most boring thing you did at church today?
- If you could change anything about church today, what would it be?
- Rate your day at church on a scale from 1-10. Why did you pick that number?
- Did anyone ask a really good question at church today? What did they ask?
- Does anyone in your room need prayer? What do they need prayer for?
- Were you helpful at church today? How so?
- Is there anything you want to do differently because of what you learned at church?
- What did today's lesson teach you about God?
- What did today's lesson teach you about yourself?
- If you were in charge of your class, what new rule would you make?
- If you were in charge of the whole church, what new tradition would you start?
- Did you play any games or do any activities at church?
- Tell me something I don't know about the Bible.
- If I sat with you in your class, what would surprise me?
- What do you think God was trying to teach you through today's story?
- What is your favorite thing about your Shepherd at church?
- If an angry T-Rex were loose in your room at church, what is one thing you would grab before running out?