Village Hall December Newsletter

Some updates since our last Newsletter:

It's been a busy time at the Hall these last few weeks, with continued strong bookings:

VILLAGE HALL USE

We had the pleasure of Australian-based duo 'Those Folk' stopping by and putting Newton in Cartmel very much 'on the map' as part of their UK Tour. Am sure all those who were able to make it on the evening would agree Lawrence & Claire's storytelling through music was both compelling and beautiful.

Super to see the Hall packed out, thanks as always to all those involved in organising before, during and afterwards, and of course for keeping us all 'refreshed' through the evening.

Special thanks as always to Wendy and Mike - "for keeping independent music alive" - and for the income these events generate towards the upkeep of the Hall.

The Christmas Coffee Morning was a lovely event, with plenty of folk calling in for a coffee and mince pie - and LOTS of good chattering! Thanks to Annette and Cath for taking the lead with this, and to everyone else who got involved and helped make it such a friendly morning - there's talk of another one early in the New Year, will keep you posted!

Other bookings have included regular yoga classes and band practice, and a number of private functions - where feedback re the Hall as a venue has been consistently positive. It's been a really successful month in booking income, and even some additional donations from users reflecting their satisfaction.

This is absolutely testament to the fantastic team of Hall Cleaners, Helpers & Fixers (you know who you are.....!) THANK YOU SO MUCH!!

If you've been passing the Hall, you'll have noticed the fantastic Christmas Tree now in position outside, and beautifully lit for this festive period. It's fair to say that the size of the tree took some manoeuvring into position..... (!) Many thanks to all village 'elves' involved – you know who you are! And what a wonderful end result – it's beautiful.
