3rd Global Amphibian and Reptile Disease Meeting: Instructions for Presenters

In-person Poster Presentations:
Posters should not exceed the size of 4' (length) x 3' (height). We will not be able to accommodate posters that exceed these dimensions. Posters smaller than the above suggested size are acceptable.
Posters will be hung using push pins (provided at the conference).

Posters should include the following sections:

1. Title, Authors, and Affiliations
2. Clear indication of lead author (e.g., Grayfer*, L).
3. Introduction/Objectives (kept short)
4. Methods with Visual Aids
5. Results (graphs preferred), Conclusions, and Implications
6. Appropriate References and any Acknowledgements

Posters should stimulate discussion and minimize long presentations. To this end, keep text to a minimum – use bullet points and emphasize graphics. Limit abbreviations and unnecessary text. Balance text and figures.

Please hang posters at the UT Conference Center (outside of meeting room) by 1:30 pm on Monday, June 8th.
You will be able to hang posters on bulletin boards and the walls of the conference center using push pins.
The poster session is 6:00-8:00pm on Monday, June 8th and corresponds with the welcome social.

Five-minute Oral Presentations:
Presenters should plan on 4-4:30 minutes; no time will be allowed for questions.

Moderators will indicate to the presenters when 3 and 4 minutes have elapsed.
There will be strict adherence to the schedule and talks will be cut off after 5 minutes.

Fifteen-minute Oral Presentations:
Presenters should plan to allocate 12-13 minutes to their presentations and leave 2-3 minutes for questions.

Moderators will indicate to the presenters when 10 and 13 minutes have elapsed.
There will be strict adherence to the schedule and talks will be cut off after 15 minutes.

In Person Oral Presenters: All in-person presentations should be created using and saved in PowerPoint format. You must upload your presentation to the laptop in the meeting room at least 30 minutes prior to the start of your session. Name your presentation file with Date, Time (24-hour clock), and Surname (e.g., 8June_845_McDonnell; 11June_1520 _Vonhoff).

Online Oral Presentations: Online presenters must create a recording of their presentation in .mp4 format and upload to the conference website BEFORE June 4th. Link to upload your online presentation: https://drive.google.com/drive/folders/10b4FnoGhz5MXcqFKGkOpPB0LvL4yFpU7?usp=sharing .

Online presenters are expected to present their seminars in real time. The uploaded recording will only be used in case of technical difficulties. All online presenters are expected to be available after their presentation to answer any questions.
