

Job Posting: Full-time Lower Elementary Teacher

Location: Maple Corner Montessori School, Roseburg, Oregon

About Us:

Join our team at Maple Corner Montessori! We are an exceptional school seeking to provide the very best educational experience to students 3 years old-8th grade. We believe in the innate love of learning in all children and desire to foster that as we teach to the individual needs of every child.

Position Overview:

We are seeking a reliable, collaborative, and innovative Lower Elementary Math and Science teacher for students in 1st through 3rd grade. This position focuses on delivering strong, engaging instruction in mathematics and science while supporting students' curiosity, critical thinking, and problem-solving skills. This role does not require prior Montessori certification; however, candidates must be open to training, which we provide.

The ideal candidate enjoys working with elementary-aged children, values hands-on and inquiry-based learning, and is excited to grow within a Montessori environment. You will work closely with other classroom teachers to support the whole child academically, socially, and emotionally.

To be successful in this role, you should be reflective, adaptable, and committed to continuous learning. You will help create a classroom environment where students feel supported, challenged, and empowered to take ownership of their learning.

We offer Montessori training for interested and qualified individuals.

Responsibilities

- Teaching math and science to Lower Elementary students (1st–3rd grade) in small group and whole group settings.
- Planning and delivering engaging, hands-on math and science lessons aligned with Montessori principles and school expectations.
- Assessing student understanding and progress and adjusting instruction accordingly.
- Creating and maintaining a safe, organized, and stimulating learning environment.
- Collaborating with classroom teachers and staff to support student development and curriculum integration.
- Building positive, respectful relationships with students based on trust and consistency.
- Communicating with families as appropriate regarding student progress.

- Preparing materials, maintaining classroom supplies, and ensuring equipment is in working order.
- Participating in school events, meetings, and professional development.
- Accompanying students on field trips when applicable.
- Updating records on the school database and handling various other administrative tasks.
- Participating in school activities and accompanying students on field trips.

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in Education, Science, Mathematics, or a related field (preferred)
- Experience working with elementary-aged children preferred
- Strong foundational knowledge of elementary math and science concepts
- Interest in or openness to Montessori philosophy and training
- Strong classroom management and organizational skills
- Ability to adapt instruction to meet diverse learning needs
- Willingness to grow professionally and receive Montessori training

Compensation
