Announcements within our Church

- Dear Friends at First Reformed Church in Platte, our brothers and sisters in Christ, Words fail us as we try to express our gratitude for such an amazing weekend with you folks. We were so blessed by the praise team, Jonna and her children's message, the privilege to preach and then to serve communion with Pastor Mike and the other elders. It was all so vibrant. It warmed our hearts to see so many young families and young people [many whom we didn't recognize] and our own peer group. Sunday school options and attendance was also inspiring. As always, the potlucks at 1st Reformed are the best and this one was no exception. [Yes, I did get to eat as Beth fixed me a plate which I took with me :)] We know there were many other people behind the scenes who make it all happen. And it was YOU that made this weekend so special. Thank you again for all your love and kindness. We are overwhelmed by how you spoil us when we come "home." You make it hard to leave. May God keep all of us in His care till me meet again. Grace, Peace and Love, Pastor Harry and Beth
