World Outreach Update: Bruce and Ellie A.-E. Europe

An amazing story from their last letter:

On the way from our home to the airport, the Uber driver, Ashley, struck up conversation, including her asking what type of work I do. Within 2 minutes of this 45-minute ride, I had the opportunity to talk about the Lord's work, including Blrusian ministry partner's courageous service and unjust imprisonment, all done for the sake of others. She was touched by his actions. I said it comes from Jesus, who suffered for others more than anyone else ever did. We continued to talk on this theme.

By the time we reached the high-rise bridge 20 minutes into the trip, Ashley started crying. She said, 'I will be honest. I was having a tough time today, and I prayed to God to please help me somehow. And now, here you are! He sent you to me. I can't believe it!' I said, yes, Jesus sent me. She continued to cry on and off for the rest of the trip and talked about how she needs to turn to God. When she dropped me off, she said through tears, 'This is amazing, what just happened! Thank you! Thank you!' I said, 'He wants you to see so vividly that he is here for you. If you turn to him with your whole heart right now, you will be fine.' Ellie and I and others have been praying for her ever since. The point: We all need the Lord. It is such a blessing and relief when we realize that. We can all watch for the moments when Jesus is making himself very present for people. The things he does for people are beautiful and worthy of praise!

If you would like to know more of the details of Bruce and Ellie's travels and work in Christ, please contact a member of the WO team and you can receive their newsletters directly or fill out a yellow contact pledge card.
