

Holy Baptism

or

Are You Ready to Die?!

What is baptism?

Yes, you, I'm asking you!

Some say baptism is like a magic ticket that you need to get into heaven.

TICKET TO HEAVEN

Your Name

ADMIT ONE

This person has read, understood and agrees to the terms and conditions of the agreement that accompany this ticket.

Signature of Ticket Holder

Others see it as a kind of washing or getting cleaned up

But actually, baptism is like dying, and more to the point, since water is required, drowning....

You think I'm joking, don't you?

But listen to the Book of Common Prayer

- Grant O Lord, that all who are baptized into the death of Jesus Christ....."BCP 306
- "In [baptism"] we are buried with Christ in his death....."id.

And listen to what St Paul says:

We were therefore buried with him through baptism into death in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, we too may live a new life.

-Romans 6:4

- Which is a fancy way of saying that if you really want to live this life, you need to know how to die ... to things like being in control and loving anger and wallowing in self pity....

and the church fathers agree....

you go down into the water; but grace seals your soul ...you go down dead in your sins, and you come up alive in righteousness"

cyril of jerusalem

- so why must we die
in baptism????????????

Here's why.....

- Our natural desire is to be number one
- Many of us love power and prestige and fame
- Others love money and security
- Nearly all of us love to control other people, places and things.

Jesus brings another way

- In Jesus, we are offered a chance to become who we were always meant to be....
- People who love one another, serve one another, who look out for the needs of our neighbors.

DAY OF SERVICE

Not because we have to earn God's love....

- but once we realize the overwhelming love God has for us, it's only natural to want to be part of that love....

DAUGHTER OF GOD

KNOW THAT YOU WERE FORMED BY GOD'S HANDS, DREAMED UP IN HIS HEART,  & PLACED IN THIS  WORLD FOR A PURPOSE.

- It's hard to think of a more important message for people to receive, especially these days, when so many find life to be without meaning and their own lives without purpose.

You see....

- God made all things for good....

Which is represented in the story of the garden of Eden

- where God walks about with the first human beings and tells them only one thing is forbidden: the knowledge of good and evil...

The tree of the knowledge of good and evil

But of the fruit of the tree which is in the middle of the garden, God said,
*You shall not eat of it, neither shall you --Gen. 3:3

That's kind of strange when you think about it, eh?

- Isn't knowing the difference between good and evil something every self-respecting human should know?
- What do YOU think?

- But think a little more....

- In every human conflict, husband and wife, brother and sister, or nations at war, what does each side say about....

Who is right and who is wrong?

Being right isn't nearly as important as knowing when to shut up.

- Yes, both sides in every conflict insist they are right and good and the other fellow is wrong and evil....

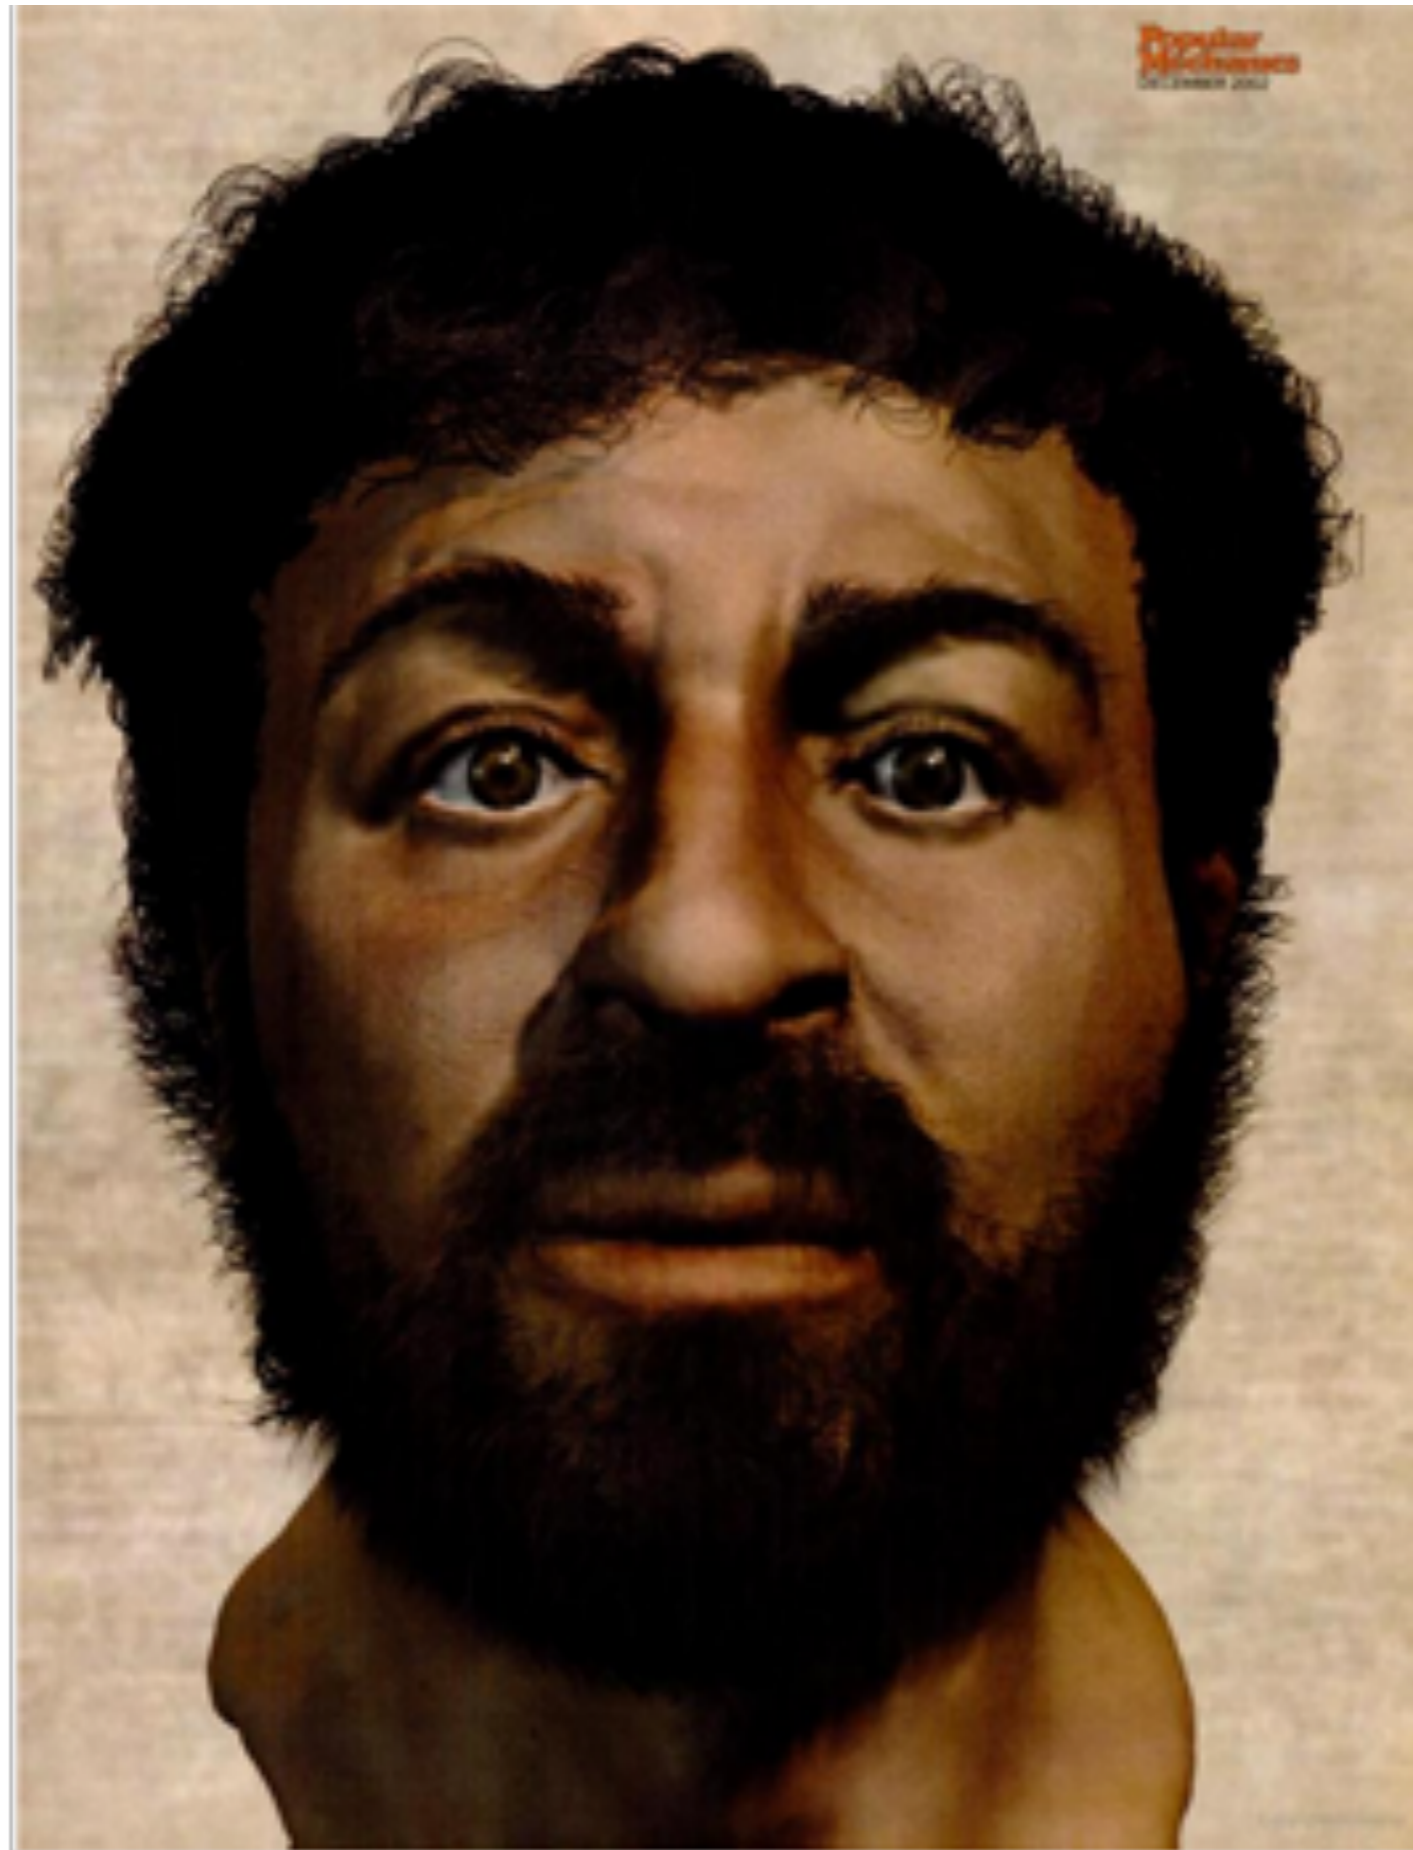

so how well are we handling

- the knowledge of good and evil??????????

- Excellent
- Very good
- Good
- Average
- Poor

- Into this mess steps Jesus,

- who is not about judging or condemning but who is all about helping us to tune into the Mystery that creates all things, whom we call God....

- And we tune into God
by a series of steps

First, by recognizing that life using only our own power and control becomes a real mess very quickly

I want you to know that I would support any choice that I tell you to make.

someecards user card

Second,

- by acknowledging that we need help to become who we are meant to be....

KEEP CALM AND ASK FOR HELP

Asking for help does not mean that we are weak or incompetent.
It usually indicates an advanced level of honesty and intelligence.

-Anne Wilson Schaef

www.annawilson.com

Third,

- by knowing 2 things about God:
- There is one...AND!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
- It's not you!

- At this point, it's helpful to spend some time reflecting on what my life is like when I'm running the ship....
- And looking at myself in a very deep and searching way, not excusing myself, but facing things I'm ashamed of, embarrassed by, would rather not remember....

“ You can learn great things from your mistakes when you aren't busy denying them.”

Suggested Defects of Character for the Moral Inventory

Dishonesty

Selfishness

Resentments

Egotism

Fear

Anger

Hatred

False Pride

Self Seeking

Conceit

Intolerance

Envy

Bigotry

Laziness

Frustration

Impatience

Condemnation

Sense of Inadequacy

Jealousy

Arrogance

Remorse

Self Pity

Revenge

Worry

Anxiety

Uncharitable

Self Reliance

A motivational quote is displayed in white, hand-drawn, uppercase letters against a background of a sunset over a body of water. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a bright glow and lens flare. The water reflects the sky and the sun. The quote is centered and reads: "YOU CAN'T CHANGE WHAT YOU REFUSE TO CONFRONT".

YOU CAN'T CHANGE
WHAT YOU REFUSE TO CONFRONT

- And then, with a priest or counselor or mentor, share those things in detail...letting it all hang out...

- And as we empty ourselves out, we create space for God's spirit to enter our lives and begin to teach us a new way to live.....
- A way that is not frightened or defensive or justifying, but which slowly comes to experience the deep compassion and love God has for you...

This can feel a lot like dying

- because it is a lot like dying...

dying to....

- our need to control
- our worship of money
- our old ways of thinking about right and wrong

- and replacing all of that with faith in Jesus....
- which begs the question....

WHO IS JESUS???

yes, i'm asking YOU!

- In the early days of the church, that was THE question: Who is Jesus?

- So in 325 AD, leaders of the Christian communities from around the world gathered at Nicea to come up with an answer to this question, a question that really asks “What is the nature of God?”

- After much discussion and prayer, this is what the church elders came up with, it is called the Nicene Creed, because it captures our essential beliefs...

THIS IS WHAT WE BELIEVE:

- “We believe,” meaning, faith is NOT a private affair...it’s given and fed and developed IN community, not all by our lonesomes....WHY???

- Because left on our own, we very often and easily come up with crazy ideas about all sorts of things...and we especially come up with crazy ideas about God. Such as....

God

- Only loves certain people or
- God is a lot like me, only better or
- God is an angry old man in the sky....

YOU'RE GOING TO

FELL!

GOD

IS

AMERICA'S

THANK GOD FOR DEAD SOLDIERS

- in one God,
- the Father, the Almighty,
- maker of heaven and earth,
- of all that is seen and unseen.

- Yes, one God, big enough to create through the big bang, patient enough to create through the miracle of evolution.

- One God, made up of three persons, Father, Son and Holy Spirit...what we call the Trinity...

“We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, one in Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.”

- in other words, Jesus is not a creation of God's, Jesus is not a man who was adopted by God, Jesus is not a spirit who only pretended to be a man, but Jesus is fully human and fully divine.....

"For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he was born of the Virgin Mary, and became man."

- Because God loves us, he sends Jesus to show us how to live the way we were always intended to live.

- An unwed teenager becomes his mother...

- We so often worry that God can't handle the various scandals in our lives, forgetting that God entered this world through a scandal, the scandal of a mother pregnant out of wedlock, a capital offense in those days....

"For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered, died, and was buried."

- Pilate was the Roman governor of Israel at the time.
- Jesus was condemned as a political prisoner and as a threat to the Roman empire.
- The best legal minds and the best religious minds of the day condemned him to death....

- Remember all that stuff about how bad we are in telling good and evil apart?????

- If the the best legal and religious minds put to death the Son of God, can we get any worse at distinguishing good from evil?
- Meaning, NOT that we shouldn't try to do so, but when we are judging good and evil, keeping in mind we are often quite likely to get it wrong..

- So maybe we need to hold onto our judgments very lightly, aware that try as we might we just aren't very good at judging....

“On the third day he rose again in fulfillment of the Scriptures”

- We don't know how it happened, no one saw the resurrection itself, a private affair between Jesus and the Father....

- But that it DID happen is evidenced by the frightened followers own experience of the Risen Lord, changing them from people shaking in their boots to fearless teachers of the good news.

- In the resurrection, God says "yes" to Jesus and "no" to our love affair with power and control and death...

- We believe Jesus actually died, and stayed dead for three days, and then was raised to life by God into a transformed body, a body we believe we shall one day receive as well....

“he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.”

- Not that he took off like a rocket into space, but that Jesus is now in that other place, the place God occupies in God's fullness, a place we call, for lack of a better word, heaven...

"We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son."

- The Holy Spirit is the third person of the Trinity
- He is called the comforter and the advocate
- Comforter because life can still be hard, there is still pain and death and disappointment, and we need comforting
- Advocate because sometimes in our lives as followers of Jesus, we need someone to speak up for God to those who insist that this life is all about power and money and fame...

“ With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.”

- The Holy Spirit is one with God...

"He has spoken through the Prophets."

- When the Jewish people forgot that God wants mercy and kindness and humility, he sent prophets to remind the people...
prophets like Isaiah and Jeremiah and Micah and Amos and finally John the Baptist....

- John the Baptist was the cousin of Jesus, and he began baptizing people with water, calling them back to a life of mercy and kindness and humility; and he baptized Jesus....

- And God continues to send the Holy Spirit to speak through prophets today, prophets like Nelson Mandela and Archbishop Oscar Romero and Dorothy Day and Daniel Berrigan...

“We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.”

- Yes, we Episcopalians are catholic!
- Meaning, "universal", meaning our faith is set out in the Nicene Creed, meaning we believe our priests and bishops are descended from the original apostles....

- We are catholic, but not Roman Catholic...

- The Church in England split with Rome in the 1500's back when popes wanted to be kings and kings wanted to be popes....

- The split had everything to do with politics and nothing to do with religious faith....

- We Episcopalians are part of the world-wide Anglican Communion, which began as part of the church of England and spread around the world...

- We believe in 7 sacraments, but the 2 most important are baptism and the Holy Eucharist or Holy Communion, the body and blood of our Lord...
- The other sacraments are marriage, holy orders, confession, confirmation and last rites...

“We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.”

- Some denominations will baptize you again if you join their group...we believe all baptisms made in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit is all that is required...

"We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come."

- This is our great hope...that this life is not the only life, that in God there is no death, and since we are all in God, we trust that death is merely a passage way, not the end point....
- Which means we can live fearlessly in this life, by acting with kindness and mercy and humility, even toward our enemies...

- If that's the life you'd like, you're ready to be baptized...

Ready to die???

and then rise into a new life???

A Life That

- trusts God in all things
- accepts that we are accepted by God
- smiles and loves and serves others because God smiles and loves and serves us!

“Leap, and the net will appear.”

— John Burroughs

- Is this the life
you'd like to live?

if you say yes

- you are ready to be baptized!

Not the end, but the beginning!

