"Dr. Bo" as he is affectionately called is the former Georgia 4-H State Director. He is the Co-founder of Clovers and Company, the premier Georgia 4-H youth musical group for the past 45 years. He is a talented pianist and singer who is a devoted father, husband and actively involved in his community through his membership in St. Joseph's Church. He has an unwavering commitment to championing young people, their leadership, and education. FBC Alma is blessed and honored to have him share his love of music and the Lord with us.

Please welcome Dr. Bo Ryles leads us in worship this morning!
