

Invitation to the Lord's Table

Prayer of Thanksgiving & Lord's Prayer (using "sins" & "those who sin against us")

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us; lead us, not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

The Magi were overwhelmed with joy, because they realized, they recognized, that they had arrived at the place where they were meant to be, the place where they were most themselves, the place where they could say that they were at home. They had arrived at the place where the divine and the human meet. They had arrived at the place where heaven and earth come together.
